Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: The applicant argued the cited art fails to teach or suggest maintaining a record of the session number and comparing a session number received to the record of the session and the cited also fails to teach the consecutive order of pre-establishing, generating, maintaining encrypting, and receiving. The examiner indicated section of the cited art (Minchener '191: Column 4: lines 55-67; column 5: lines 40-67; figure 5a, 5b; column 7: lines 15-60) and explained that session number or token is generated when to establish communication based on a predefined protocol or procedure for a specified period of time during which the session starts and ends. The examiner further suggested to the applicant to consider incorporating features of figure 6 and 8 in the independent claims and other essential features of the invention.
